

Healthy Bees (Carnica and Ligustica) are of crucial importance for the pollination of our medical herbs and related seeds.

Breeding of bees is carried out to produce bee-mass, queens, Propolis and Honey.

Chemical free agriculture is a guarantee for a healthy bee population and their products.

Propolis products such as tincture, oil and paste and in combination with other medical herb products is one of our specialities (All products are tested in authorised labs).

